Commissioner O'Gurek said there are over 700 absentee ballots being processed. He stressed that all absentee ballots do count and he urged voters to send them back in a timely manner. He said several ballots were returned after the deadline in the last election and were not counted. He said the deadline for the elections office to receive ballots by mail or by personal delivery of the voter is the Friday before the election.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business to come before the Board, the Chairperson declared the meeting of the Carbon County Board of Elections adjourned at 10:56 A.M.
